CHICAGO TRIBUNE, FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1964

BOLDEN FIRED FROM SECRET SERVICE STAFF

Abraham Bolden, 29, was fired yesterday by the secret service.

The first Negro agent ever assigned to guard a President, he was sentenced to six years in prison on Wednesday for attempting to sell a secret service file for $50,000 to a man accused of being the ringleader of a counterfeiting operation. Bolden is free on bond.